A Sample of Investigations & Arrests

On October 1, 2024 at 1921 hrs., patrol responded to a convenience store on Route 22 East for a report of suspects that uttered fraudulent $100.00 bills. The store clerk reported that two individuals came into the store and uttered $300.00 worth of fraudulent $100.00 bills within the store and also went to the gas station attendant and received change for two $100.00 bills, making it a total of five $100.00 bills. The surveillance footage shows the first suspect was a tall, heavy set black male with long dreads and was wearing a blue zip up jacket. That male uttered a $100.00 bill at the front register. The second suspect is a skinny black male with afro style hair and a black sweatshirt. The second suspect uttered two $100.00 counterfeit bills at the front register. The clerk stated that the heavy-set black male walked over to the gas station attendant and gave him two $100.00 counterfeit bills and asked for change. The suspects exited the store and entered a black Honda with no front license plate, operated by a young black female wearing a gray sweat suit.

On October 2, 2024 at 1024 hrs., the ARRIVE Team was contacted by a borough resident regarding his son, who he believed was in need of a psychiatric evaluation. The caller stated that his son has a mental health illness and that over the last few months he has spent too much time in his bedroom and refuses to communicate with anyone. The caller noticed his son stopped taking his prescribed medication, which led to him resigning from his job. Officers spoke with the victim who said he suffers from bipolar, depression, and schizophrenia and that it has gone untreated for approximately three years. He denied any suicidal/homicidal ideations or hearing voices at this time. The ARRIVE mental health screener completed his assessment and did not deem it necessary to have the son involuntarily committed, however, it was suggested that he be seen at the hospital for a further evaluation and assistance in receiving the proper treatment. The victim agreed and was transported to a hospital for evaluation.

On October 9, 2024 at 2346 hrs., patrol responded to an apartment complex north of Route 22 for multiple individuals dressed in all black pulling on car door handles. Officers arrived and observed the group and called for them to stop. Three of the suspects started running north through the apartments and were chased by an officer. One of the males obeyed the command to stop. That male told one of the officers that one of the three suspects had a gun. The other suspects who were later identified entered a gray Acura when an officer approached them. All three were ordered multiple times to exit the vehicle and they eventually complied. All four males were placed under arrest for obstruction. A consent to search the vehicle was obtained by the vehicle's owner and inside the vehicle three walkie talkies, multiple flashlights, and a ski mask were located. The officer who chased the suspects retraced his steps from the foot pursuit and located two black ski masks, a black cross body bag, and two machetes. No gun was located. CID was notified of the incident. One adult male suspect was issued a summons and released at 0202 hrs. The other three males were juveniles and they were released to their parents pending charges.
