CID Monthly Report

A Sample of Investigations & Arrests

On February 1, 2022 at 2226 hrs., patrol was dispatched to an apartment complex north of Route 22 for a report of a stolen motor vehicle. The victim advised the officer that his black Dodge Ram 3500 pickup truck was stolen from the parking lot in his apartment complex. The truck has a 9-foot stainless steel plow attached to it, 2 power washers in the back bed, and a company logo on the sides. The truck was stolen between 1600 hours and 2225 hours. The towing contractor who serviced those apartments was contacted to see if they towed the truck with negative results. The truck was entered as stolen. On February 1, 2022 at approximately 2359 hrs., NPPD dispatch received a hit confirmation request from another department for a recovered stolen motor vehicle. Dispatch sent a hit confirmation response. Patrol spoke to the owner of the vehicle via telephone who advised that he was able to GPS track his vehicle to Elizabeth, NJ. Once he got to the vehicle's tracking location, he contacted Elizabeth PD. Once they made sure that his vehicle was unoccupied, he recovered his vehicle. The victim stated the vehicle's ignition was damaged and the radio was stolen, but there was no other damage to the vehicle.

On February 9, 2022 at 2318 hrs., patrol responded to a residence on Cedar Street on the report of a stolen vehicle. The victim stated that he double parked his Gray Toyota Highlander in front of Cedar Street at approximately 2315 hrs. The vehicle was parked
