CID Monthly Report

A Sample of Investigations & Arrests

On July 11, 2021 at 0732 hrs., patrol units were alerted to the description of the suspect in a previous attempted car burglary and responded to the area of Netherwood Avenue and Mountain Avenue on the report of a male attempting to enter a vehicle. His description was a black male wearing grey sweat pants and a red hooded sweat shirt. While searching the area, another call came in from a nearby address from a resident who observed the suspect in his driveway on his security camera. While enroute to that call, patrol observed an open door on a vehicle in a driveway on Richard Way and the male suspect was still in that car. Two officers approached the suspect. The suspect told the officers that he was 17 years old and that the car he was in was his aunt's car. The suspect was asked his aunt's name and he could not answer. The owner of the vehicle was asked to come outside and asked if she knew the suspect and she said that she did not. The suspect, later determined to be an adult, was placed under arrest. The suspect
